PLAYERS' CHARTER

Players are the most important people in the sport. Playing for the team to win is the most fundamental part of the game. BUT not winning at any cost.

Fair Play and respect for all others in the game is also fundamentally important.

Players playing at Asfordby Amateurs Junior and Youth Football Club have certain obligations to follow the Code of Conduct below:

Obligations towards the game

Every player should conduct themselves in a manner which achieves the best possible performance, not use abusive language, avoid all forms of gamesmanship and time wasting and finally set a positive example for others particularly young players and supporters.

Obligations towards one's own team

Every Player should ensure fair play within the Laws of the game and avoid any influence, which might, or might be seen to, bring into question your commitment to the team.

Obligations towards opponents

Every Player should treat opponents with due respect, avoid violence and rough play and help injured opponents.

Obligations towards match officials

Every Player should accept the decisions of match officials without protest and show due respect towards coaches, team officials and supporters providing they do not contradict the spirit of this code.
